

Acrostic Poems

Acrostic poems are simple poems in which the first letter of each line forms a word or phrase (vertically). An acrostic poem can describe the subject or even tell a brief story about it. Your poem should be about the topic word and each line should begin with a letter from the word.

- Formed by writing a word vertically down the page
- One letter per line
- All capital letters
- Each line of poetry must begin with the letter on that line and must pertain to the word
- May use one word or a phrase
- Does not have to rhyme
- Use adjectives and phrases that describe the word

Here is an example of an acrostic poem using the word “flowers”.

Fanciful colors,
Lovely colors,
Overflowing
With blossoms, green leaves, and long stems.
Everyone appreciates how they brighten up a room.
Reaching out to the world
Saying hello!

The word is written vertically. Every letter of the word is the beginning of the sentence or phrase on each line. The sentences do not have to rhyme, or even flow together like it was telling a story.
